Hosiery With Holes

to darn will almost be a thing of the past if you come here and buy the famous "BLACK CAT" triple-knee Leather Stockings for Children. The maker claims DOUBLE wearing capabilities for this brand because, first, the yarn is SUPERIOR in quality, and second, for the more important reason that the acids and other "burning out" substances which are present in all aniline dyes have been chemically removed, a process which adds immeasurably to the wear. Mothers, if your boys or girls are hard on stockings, try a pair of "Black Cat" at 25c.

WILL BE HELD UNTIL VERDICT

Of the Coroner's Jury Settles the Cause of the Death of the Girl—She Denies Having Done any Unlawful Act; Says Mrs. Bowers was Attacked by Sickness While Calling at her House—The Post Mortem Develops that the Girl had Been in a Delicate Condition for Five Months—Coroner's Jury Will View the Body To-day.

The death of Miss Maggie Bero, or more properly speaking, Mrs. Harry Bowers (for it develops that she was married to Bowers on Tuesday evening of this week, by Rev. R. R. Bigger), under suspicious circumstances which were told exclusively in the Intelligencer yesterday morning, was discussed by South Side people yesterday, and there is one opinion that overshadows all others—that no effort should be neglected to show the true cause of the young woman's death, and the guilty person or persons should be given the punishment provided for by the law.

The event of the day was the post mortem examination of the remains at the Bero home, on the South Side. This was completed late yesterday afternoon and resulted in the discovery that the deceased had been in a delicate condition for five months. The physicians could not say whether or not an unlawful act was attempted, even if it was attempted, of course it is known now that it was unsuccessful. To-day Coroner Schultze will empanel a jury which will view the body, and the coroner's inquest will then be postponed until the result of the chemist's examination is known.

Early yesterday morning, Chief of Police Clemens learned of the suspicious circumstances surrounding Mrs. Bowers' death, through information that had been furnished the department through the Intelligencer, and he at once proceeded to the South Side and placed Mrs. Ella McCurdy under arrest, or rather she was taken to police headquarters and detained, pending developments. E. J. Clark, the man who was charged with the murder of Mrs. Bowers, was also taken to police headquarters. Both remained at the police office throughout the day, and last night when the authorities learned of certain features of the post mortem, the chief decided to take more decisive action.

He decided to charge Mrs. McCurdy with the murder of Mrs. Bowers. This he did on the advice of coroner Schultze, with whom he consulted. The result was the taking of Mrs. McCurdy and E. J. Clark before Justice W. W. Hogan, who committed them to jail, charged with murder and was committed to jail in default of $1,000 bond. E. J. Clark was held under $500 bond as a witness. Neither was able to furnish the required surety.

Mrs. McCurdy denies any wrong doing. She says she met Mrs. Bowers on Twenty-seventh street, saw she was sick and took her to her home, where she fell down in a faint and expired shortly after.

Approaching developments will be awaited with great interest.

THE POST MORTEM

Examination Held Yesterday by Several Prominent Physicians.

The post mortem was held at the Bero residence, 2315 Jacob street, and lasted from 2:30 to 5 o'clock. The physicians participating were: Drs. Armbricht, Schwinn, W. R. Taylor, Ford, Baird, Hildreth, Andrew Wilson, Plante and Haning. The county was represented by Coroner Schultze and Assistant Prosecuting Attorney F. W. Nesbitt, while Chief of Police Clemens was the representative of the city authorities.

The result of their examination disclosed no evidences of violence, nor was the cause of death apparent, but there was a suspicion that the stomach might have been the cause of death, and therefore the stomach was preserved to satisfy this belief. The analysis will be made by C. R. Bower, the chemist, and on its basis really hangs all future developments. An expert examination may show the presence of the medicines suspected.

The physicians discovered that the deceased had been in a delicate condition for five months, and she was found with child. This fact removed the fear that the criminal operation had been carried to the end of the world, and, of course, the consequences were tragic even if criminal practice had been attempted. But the outcome hinges entirely on the result of the chemist's report, by which the coroner's jury will be largely governed.

A ray of sunlight in the depth of sadness was the confirmation of the statement that the deceased girl was married to Harry Bowers. The marriage license was issued on Tuesday of this week by County Clerk Robertson, and Rev. R. R. Bigger, of the Third Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony. The marriage return has not yet been made, but Mr. Bero has the papers.

In the immediate vicinity of the dead girl's home, and in fact all over the South Side, general sympathy was expressed for the family. Maggie Bero was a bright girl and well liked by all who knew her. Regret was expressed by her friends for Harry Bowers for the unfortunate position in which he was placed, and his friends are confident future events will remove the shadow that is placed on his name for the present. Little sympathy was expressed, however, for Mrs. McCurdy. She has been separated from her husband for years, and Clark, who has been boarding with her, is also married, and has a large family. His wife lives in the lower part of the Eighth ward and ekes out an existence as a washwoman. At the McCurdy house there lived also a young man, Samuel Young, said to be a friend of Mrs. McCurdy. There is considerable darkness surrounding the circumstances of Mrs. Bowers' death and naturally there are reports at variance, and only a minority of those truly concerned will give the true details. It is known, however, that her death occurred about 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, in the McCurdy house, in the rear of 2424 Chapel street. Mrs. Bowers left her home about 1:30 or 2 o'clock, or a little later. She walked to Mrs. McCurdy's, several blocks away. It is said she fainted shortly after entering the house, and was then assisted to a bed, on which she died.

Then Clark or Young hurried to Dr. H. T. Ford's office, on South Jacob street, but it was very likely Clark. Dr. Ford was not in his office, being out on a case, yet Clark remained there until 6 o'clock, at which hour Dr. Ford returned. Clark's lengthy wait in view of the grave necessity of a physician's assistance as soon as possible, has been noticed by the coroner. When visited the McCurdy house, he saw no mortal aid was needed. The body was removed to the home of her parents. The suddenness of her death demanded investigation, and Coroner Schultze lost little time in taking steps to this end, and by communicating with Prosecuting Attorney Meyer, and Dr. E. L. Armbricht, the county physician, the post mortem was determined on.

To-day a jury will be empaneled by Coroner Schultze, and after the remains are viewed the jury will be adjourned, awaiting the chemical analysis. The arrangements for the funeral were not perfected last night, but it will likely occur on Sunday.

The funeral of Mrs. Bowers will take place on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bero, 3315 Jacob street, with interment at Mount Zion.

THINK THIS OVER.

A Rational Remedy for a National Trouble.

To say that hemorrhoids or the disease commonly known as piles is a national disease may be slightly over-stating it, but it is quite certain that at least one in every four persons is so afflicted.

Because it is common and not immediately fatal many suffer for years without giving the trouble any medical attention.

Moreover, the rather general impression that a surgical operation is the only cure for the disease is a mistake. At the present time the disease becomes deep seated and chronic.

Sufferers from piles should know that the Pyramid Pile Cure is better than a surgical operation; it cures without pain, it causes no detention from business and the cost is trifling, all druggists selling it at 50 cents per package.

The astrigent effects of the acids in the Pyramid Pile Cure speedily contracts and restores to their natural condition the blood vessels of the affected parts, and as it quickly dissolves in the rectum the remedy soothes and heals the irritated surfaces, and these two things are the only necessary requirements for a cure.

The principal danger from piles is the liability to chronic ulceration of the rectal tissue, and nervous exhaustion from loss of sleep and attendance on pain and irritation. All these symptoms the Pyramid quickly relieves and the fact that it is the most popular and widely sold of any cure is quite conclusive evidence of thorough merit.

If you suffer from bleeding, itching or protruding piles try a fifty-cent package to-night. Ask your druggist for Pyramid Pile Cure.
